TEXPERTISE
the textile business network

Asia's only dedicated show for technical textiles and nonwovens

Cinte Tectextil China bridges business gaps between Asian and Western markets; at the convergence of innovation and sustainability for high-potential industries.

The 2025 edition offers access to buyers across an increasing range of sectors in the world's largest market, with demand surging for textile chemicals & dyes, as well as products and equipment with Mobiltech, Medtech, and Protech applications. Join Asia's leading trade fair for technical textiles and nonwovens this year to meet new buyers and long-standing partners, and drive business growth in China and beyond.

What exhibitors say about the show

"We produce high-tech functional protective fabrics. At Cinte Techtextil China, we can connect face-to-face with many raw materials suppliers, apparel manufacturers, and overseas customers. The overall visitor flow has been very good, and we were pleased that among our visitors were leaders from industry associations, relevant VIP buyers, and the German Deputy Consul General."

Ms Zhao Chixian, Deputy General Manager, IBENA Shanghai Technical Textile, China
